

Extraordinary Values in DINING TABLES

At Hawley & Warner's

Nothing adds to the beauty and dignity of a home like a nice up-to-date dining table, and nothing gives the housewife more satisfaction than to feel as she invites her company to the dining room that she has a neat pedestal table. Values are not always the cheapest things you can find. But values depend upon the material and the workmanship which enter into any article. And when you can get the best of material and workmanship for a price no greater than you have to pay for cheap goods, it is time to buy. And we have you on that proposition. A solid oak table, perfect in construction, massive in appearance and fit for any home for only $10.00

Others in larger tops at $12.50 and $17.00

We also have a complete stock of square five leg tables at good prices.

Don't Monkey With the Buzz Saw

Something might happen.

And don't monkey with that "direct-from-the-mill-to-you" proposition. You'll surely get stung, if you do. They're buzz saws of the worst kind, just aying for the opportunity to separate you from your honest dollars.

When you get ready to build a new house, or a barn, or a granary, or a corn crib or to make needed repairs about the place, come and see us. We will give you a perfectly fair price for honest goods.

You can see what you are getting and take no chance of being "held up." Let us quote you on any thing you want.

FREE & MUTCHLER

To Check Joy Riding.

A device intended to check joy riding in another man's automobile consists of an arrangement by which two bright red disks automatically appear on the borrowed car. These are intended to notify the police that something is wrong. When the owner or his representative is using the car, the red disks do not show, another color being substituted by a simple contrivance controlled by a Yale lock.

An Innovation.

Hewitt—"We must have something new at our automobile show." Jewett—"Well, suppose we have an exhibition machines showing their death records?"

Tipping the Porter.

On a recent trip to California Bert Walker says the Pullman porter acted as though he wanted something from the passengers. "What do you want?" Bert asked him. "Oh, anything you see fit to give, boss," replied the porter. "All right," said Bert. "Boys, let's give the porter three cheers." And they did.

Unexpected Filppancy.

We hardly look for humor in a medical dictionary, yet one recently published defines "shout" as "an unpleasant noise produced by overstraining the throat, for which great singers are paid well and small children are punished."

BIG DOINGS AT DETROIT.

From July 22 to the 27th is going to see big doings in Detroit. The "Cadillac Celebration" is expected to bring at least 200,000 visitors to the city from all parts of the country, and this assemblage in addition to Detroit's half million population will witness what is designed to be the most elaborate affair ever planned by a city in the way of entertainment. There will be magnificent parades made up of historicals in the way of floats and tableaux, representing the early history of Detroit. There will be a procession of 20,000 automobiles and a big turn-out of industrial floats, typical of Detroit's many growing industries. On the river and vicinity of Belle Isle a full program of events has been arranged, including motor-boat and sailing contests. Swimming and rowing events also in which the most noted performers will participate.

WILL BE FARMER BOY.

Master Wilbur Hall has a treat in store for him for his summer vacation. Last Wednesday he went to Chicago to visit a short time at the home of his uncle, after which, in company with his grandmother, he will go to Riceville, Iowa, and have the pleasure of living on a big farm during the summer. The young man is delighted with the prospect and will, undoubtedly conclude that this vacation is for some reason shorter than the ones heretofore.

Wilbur has been the Saturday Evening Post carrier for some time and has a great many friends who wish for him all kinds of good things.

YOUNGSTERS HAPPY.

Dwayne and Gaylord Burke entertained twenty of their friends at a delightful party on Wednesday of last week at their home on West Main street. The afternoon was spent in games, hunting peanut nests and cleaning prize weeds(?) from fruit trees. Mrs. Burke, assisted by her sister, Mrs. Stoughton, served the happy little ones with refreshments. Grandpa Simmons, aged 85 years, was guest of honor and reports that he is as much of a boy as he was 80 years ago.

All voted a jolly time and with many many regrets and farewells they bade their hosts goodnight. Thus ended another pleasant epoch in child life.

OPERATION ON EYE.

Frank Stevens met with a very painful accident last Thursday while repairing a barbed wire fence. In some way while striking the wire a splinter flew from it and struck Mr. Stevens in the left eye and imbedded itself not far from the sight. He did not think it a very serious matter at the time, but it became very painful and he went to Borgess hospital in the afternoon and was operated upon. The particle was so firmly set that a strong magnet was necessary to draw it from its resting place. He returned home Saturday and is reported as improving rapidly.

AT THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Rev. F. C. Laslette of Grand Rapids, has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Christian church and will appear in that capacity next Sunday. Mr. Laslette comes among us thoroughly equipped for the work in hand, with a good education, a keen mind, an up-to-date thought and years of experience, all combining to make him an eloquent speaker and pleasant and congenial gentleman to meet.

Serices both morning and evening to which all are cordially invited. Let's give the stranger a hearty welcome.

A COMPULSORY VACATION.

W. G. Ackley was unable to attend to business down town the greater part of last week. Upon being questioned as to the cause of his illness he replied: "I was the victim of strawberryitis—if you know what that is; if there is no such thing, then I was intemperate in the matter of eating strawberries, the effect being like some kind of poison."

The tempting shortcake will have no charms for Mr. Ackley for the remainder of the season, at least. He is attending to his duties and is now as good as new.
